BIOGRAPHY

A J Bolster | Author and Playwright

A J Bolster is a UK-based writer and playwright creating school-friendly plays and stories for young performers. She studied drama at school and, as a teenager, performed with Su Pollard at the Cooperative Arts Theatre in Nottingham (1979–80). She also trained in dance at Roy & Mary Knight Dance Studio, achieving Bronze, Silver and Gold medals in Latin and Ballroom.

That early grounding in performance and storytelling has shaped her work as a writer. She is the author of The Snoops series and the Seven Stones Saga series, combining mystery, heart and ensemble-driven characters with a strong sense of theatricality and practical, accessible staging.
