

Feminist playwright Donna Latham's work champions dangerous, heroic women ignored by history. Her play ALL THE WAY BACK received the Prize for Climate Justice. Donna's a resident playwright at Rising Sun Performance Company NYC. Her plays have been produced coast to coast in the US and in Northern Ireland, Ireland, England, France, Scotland, Indonesia, South Korea, and Pakistan. They're published with YouthPLAYS and Next Stage Press and anthologized in Best American Short Plays 2016-2017, Best American Short Plays 2014-2015, 2016's Best Ten-Minute Plays, and She Persisted: New Plays By Women Over 40, 2021, Laughter Is The Best Medicine: Short Plays From The Days of the Coronavirus, Best Women's Stage Monologues 2022 and Smith & Kraus WE/US: Monologues for Gender Minority Characters Anthology. A member of Honor Roll! Playwrights, Donna's a proud member of the Dramatists Guild.