

Barry Wallace Playwright Bio

Barry Wallace is a playwright, theatrical director and music director from Knoxville, TN. He has written five full-length plays and numerous 10-minute plays. His short play, BLACK BALLOONS won Best Screenplay and Best Production in the 2022 The Ten Show Film Festival in Provo, UT, and his short plays GROCERY LIST and BAGGAGE have been performed at new play festivals in 2025. His full-length play, THE SNALLYGASTER, received a staged reading as part of the 2024-2025 Tennessee Stage Company New Play Festival and was also a finalist at the Centre Stage 2025 New Play Festival in Greenville, SC. He has a BA in Theatre from the University of Tennessee and is married with two very talented grown children.