

Connie Dinkler has published three short plays, several poems and short stories and won two local literary awards. She has had twenty-four play productions of fifteen short plays including stage productions, podcasts and film productions.

Her full-length play Happy Couples was included in the New Works Virtual Festival in 2020 and has had a high school production in Maryland. Her short play, Not a Dark and Stormy Night was third runner up in the AMAZE short play competition in 2020.

Connie was chosen as one of the literary artists in the "Meet the Artist" festival held by the Rowan Arts Council in Salisbury, NC in May of 2025.