

Dan McGeehan is an award-winning actor, director, playwright, and illustrator. He studied at Philadelphia's Arden Theatre and has over 100 productions to his credit. He is the author of a number of short plays, including "A Long Trip," which is one of the most performed short scripts in America. In 2020, Dan worked with composer Jordan Kuspa in adapting "A Long Trip" into an opera which premiered in Boston in 2023.