

Melanie Kamauu

Melanie is originally from the Houston, Texas area and is currently located in Utah. She graduated with a BA in Theatre Arts Studies from Brigham Young University in June of 2024. At her core, she is an artist who values storytelling and seeks stories that resonate deeply with the audience. She takes pride in her versatility in her work on the stage as a director, sound designer, award-winning playwright, and more! She is currently an assistant artistic director at Vicariously Staged Productions.