

MUCH ADO THAT ENDS WELL

PLAYWRIGHT BIOGRAPHY

David Mayerovitch is a TV writer, songwriter, playwright and speechwriter. He was the winner of the BMI Award for best lyrics in a college show in the U.S. and Canada. He has written comedy for CBC television in Toronto and updated the lyrics of Gilbert & Sullivan's The Gondoliers at the Stratford Festival and of The Mikado at the National Arts Centre in Ottawa, where he has also written script and lyrics for many gala productions. He is the author of the stage-play series Programmed for Passion and of the one-acter The Maltese Blue Jay, both produced at Solar Stage in Toronto. He wrote book, music and lyrics for the musical version of The Maltese Blue Jay, produced at the Kawartha Festival.