

Glenn Terlecki is a playwright and stage actor born and raised in Connecticut. On stage, he brings complex characters to life, turning scripts into compelling stage performances. Offstage, his writing ranges from comedic to tragic, evoking strong emotional reactions from the audience. His scripts have garnered rave reviews, and theatre professionals have described his work as brilliant. In addition to his work in theatre, Glenn is a creative artist and a passionate lover of nature and faith. He currently resides in Hebron, Connecticut.